WOMAN TROUNCES YOUTHFUL BURGLAR IN HER APARTMENT

Then Calls a Policeman to Take Thoroughly Walloped Runaway to Station.

A young woman poked her head out of a window on the top floor of No. 201 East Thirtieth street last night and called to Patrolman Belcher of the East Thirty-fifth street station: "Will you please come up here? I've got a burgiar."

got a burgiar."

Belcher took the elevator and went to the top floor. There he entered the apartment of Miss Fidelia C. Evans and found her in the front room, holding a cringing youth by the collar.
"I returned home a few minutes ago," Miss Evans said, "and found this in my apartments." Then she gave a victous thake and "this" looked thoroughly cowed.

"He was in my bedroom." Miss Evans continued. "I caught him and I want to turn him over to you."

The apartment was in disorder. Chairs and other small articles of furniture ware everturned. There evidently had been a struggle, which had been carried en from one room to another. The prisoner's face was bruised and he bore several cuts. Miss Evans was flushed and breathing hard.

"He tried to get away," she explained to Beloher, "but, you see, he didn't." In the poicle station the prisoner said he was Frank Smith, sixteen years old. and had run away from home to be an actor in moving picture theatres. He couldn't find work he said, and added "I won't tell you where my home is." In his pockets were found a pair of opera glasses and $5.30, which Miss Evans said belonged to her.

As an elevated train passed above them Cohen hurled a brick through the store window. His companion grabbed a pair of diamond earrings valued at $1,000, and both ran.

George Collyer, a clerk in the jewelry shop, rushed out and shouted. Cohen was caught three blocks away by Trafno Policeman Spellman, while Detective John J. Sullivan overtook Wiener. Clerk Collyer ploked up the earrings on the street.

At the Adams street station the boys were charged with burglary. Wiener, who said he lives at No. 322 Rivington street, Manhattan, was sent to the Children's Society, and Cohen, who said his home is at No. 206 Henry street, was locked up. Both lads declared they couldn't explain what had induced the
